GRANITE LOCAL HAPPENINGS

DEATH OF MRS. W. B. PEARSON.

She Passes Away on a Train on Her Way to Her Old Home.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. May Pearson, wife of W. B. Pearson, Elkhorh, Montana, reached Granite last Monday.

Mrs. Pearson had been troubled with diabetes for some time past and was on her journey to Canada, where she hoped to see home and loved ones once more, and to seek medical treatment. But this hope was never realized. In company with her little girl, she became unconscious on the train, on Sept. 30th, near Chicago, and expired in a few hours. Her remains were conducted to the home of her parents and interred in the family cemetery.

On becoming unconscious, as above stated, her husband was notified and he at once took the train for the point of destination.

The deceased, formerly May Kennedy, taught several successful terms of school in Granite and was greatly beloved by all her pupils, as well as by a host of friends. About two years ago she was united in marriage to W. B. Pearson, also of this place, by Rev. A. C. McMillan, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Bettles. She was then a seemingly strong and robust woman; but, alas, that youthful, noble and gentle spirit has departed, and the kind deeds she has performed here will ever live afresh in the memory of her innumerable friends. Peace to her ashes.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved, or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor's bill. Procure a 50-cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by M. E. Doe & Co., Drug-gists, Philipsburg.

DAIRYMEN, TAKE NOTICE—We have a lot of transparent paper for butter rolls for sale. It is far better than cloth and much cheaper. THE MAIL OFFICE.
